"Wonderful!" exclaimed Mr. Evans.
"How did you know?"
"By a very simple process of deductive and inductive reasoning." responded the sleath. "To an ordinary mind the fact that the shop was entered with a key and that Minton had a key would seen simply a coincidence, but to the trained intellect of a detective it speaks volumes."
"How simple it all seems after you have it explaired," cried Evans in actonishment. "And what had the suit of clothes to do with it?"
"That, too is absurdly simple, when you apply a little science. If you noticed the thermometer last night you dougtless observed that the mercury was some dis-

Miss Jennings and Mrs. Miller gave a recital last night in the Congregational church to about two hundred invited church to about two hundred invited guests. The stage was decorated with palms and carnations and some statuary. Mrs. Miller played first. Bach's "Fantasia," in G rimor, and for her second selection, which was encored, she played Lemarc's "Partoral," in E. a sweet selection which she treated well. Miss Jennings was in good voice and her notes were as clear as a bell. Her singing is very easy. S's was particularly good in a bright thing from Chaminade, "Berceuse."

SALT LAKE CITY WOMEN INTERESTED

Miss Julia M. Beu, Overworked and Nervous, Tells of Her Remarkable Cure by Vinol.

How many women right here in Salt Lake City are in her condition dragging out a weary existence? They are not sick enough to lie in bed, but they are overworked, tired out, run down, thin, nervous and miserable. Such women will be interested in Miss Beu's letter.

Miss Beu writes: I was nervous and weak having constant headaches, and that general worn out, overworked, tired-all-the-time feeling. Vinol was recommended to me as a wonderful cod liver oil restorative for weak, tired women. I tried it, and it has made an entirely different person of me. I am well and strong, and can do my work with case and without fatigue. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Vinol to overworked, tired, nervous women, as I believe it is without an equal in its wonderful restorative powers.
